

Two new appointments for JFSC's Supervision division

The Jersey Financial Services Commission (JFSC) has announced two new senior appointments within its Supervision division.

Jill Britton has joined the JFSC as Director of Supervision for Investment, Insurance, Funds, Trust, Money Service Businesses, and Designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions (DNFBP) and also assumes a position on the Executive Board, while Andrea John has been appointed Head of Banking.

Jill returns to the JFSC having previously worked in Supervision from 2002 to 2004. With more than 25 years of experience in financial services in the UK, Jersey and Asia, Jill has spent the last 15 years specialising in compliance and operational risk management.

Andrea has worked in financial services regulation in the UK for nine years, primarily at the Financial Services Authority (FSA) and more recently at the Prudential Regulation Authority. She has supervised a wide variety of UK deposit-takers and other regulated firms, and contributed to numerous investigations.

JFSC Director General, John Harris commented:

“We are delighted to announce these two appointments which complete the strong senior management team we now have in place within Supervision. Jill’s return to the JFSC is a huge bonus; her extensive Industry and international experience and her energy make her a true asset to the division and the Executive Board. Andrea’s breadth of regulatory knowledge is invaluable for the JFSC and we are delighted to welcome her to the team.”

Ends.

Notes to Editors:

Jill was the Chief Risk Officer for Coutts Asia between 2009 and 2011 before moving to Standard Chartered as the Head of Operational Risk for South East Asia between 2011 and 2013. Jill returned to Jersey at the end of 2013 as the Head of Risk and recently Head of Compliance for UBS AG, Jersey Branch. Jill is a Committee Member for the Jersey Women’s Development Forum.
