1 Executive Summary

1.1 Overview
1.1.1 The JFSC issued the Consultation Paper on 17 May 2019. The purpose of the Consultation Paper was to seek views on proposals to:

1.1.1.1 Increase FSB, AIF and CIF and QSMA fee rates by 7%
1.1.1.2 Increase CoBO fee rates by 7% with the exception of JPF annual fees
1.1.1.3 Introduce fees for amendments to existing CoBO consents for NDS (non-fund) and Jersey UT (non-fund)
1.1.1.4 Increase JPF annual fees by 3.6%
1.1.1.5 Explore views on higher increases to JPF fees as an alternative to other increases in the proposed fee rates
1.1.1.6 Explore views on an additional 1.5% increase in fee rates to fund an additional policy development resource devoted to funds-related policy development

1.2 Feedback received
1.2.1 The consultation period closed on 14 June 2019. Two responses were received directly by the JFSC and two responses were received by Jersey Finance.
1.2.2 Section 2 of this Feedback Paper presents a summary of the substantive comments received and the JFSC’s replies, as appropriate, to each.
1.2.3 The JFSC is grateful to respondents for taking the time to consider and comment on the proposals. The final Fees Notices can be found from Appendices B to F.

1.3 Next steps
1.3.1 For the reasons given in this Feedback Paper, the JFSC will proceed with the following increases to the fee tariffs (rounded to £10):

1.3.1.1 Increase FSB, AIF, CIF and QSMA fee rates (including the fee cap) by 7%
1.3.1.2 Increase CoBO fee rates by 7% with the exception of JPF annual fees
1.3.1.3 Introduce fees for amendments to existing CoBO consents for NDS (non-fund) and Jersey UT (non-fund)
1.3.1.4 Increase JPF annual fees by 3.6%

1.3.2 The Fees Notices (Appendices B to F) have been updated and will be published on the JFSC website.
1.3.3 As in prior periods, the 2019 annual fees will be collected electronically i.e. by bank transfer, and payments will only be accepted by the JFSC, from 1 July 2019. Invoices will be available through the myJFSC portal after this date.

2 Summary of responses

2.1 Structure of this section
2.1.1 This section summarises the substantive comments received in response to the Consultation and the JFSC’s responses.
2.1.2 The Consultation Paper asked two questions:

2.1.2.1 “Do you agree with the proposed fee rate changes consulted on in this paper?”
2.1.2.2 “Do you have views on the notions outlined at 3.2.12 and 3.2.13” (views on higher increases to JPF fees and additional policy resource)

2.2 Increase to fee rates

2.2.1 None of the respondents explicitly objected to the proposals, however, a number of questions and clarificatory requests were made. For this reason, the proposals will be implemented as summarised at 1.3.1 with the JFSC’s replies detailed below.

2.2.2 One respondent expressed concern that the over-inflationary increase to fee rates was a “shock” increase with potential negative impacts on Jersey’s competitiveness resulting from the proposals. These negative impacts included a significant loss of funds business to other jurisdictions as a result of fee rate increases over recent years.

2.2.2.1 The JFSC notes the concerns that fee rate increases may have a negative impact on Jersey’s competitiveness. In context, the JFSC notes continued growth in assets under management within regulated funds, the success of the JPF and the absence of direct evidence that fee rate increases have lead to a “loss of funds” for Jersey. Notwithstanding this context, the JFSC remains sensitive to concerns in respect of Jersey’s competitive position and acknowledges that fees are a component in the wider positioning of Jersey as a competitive jurisdiction.

2.2.3 Two respondents identified that the Consultation stated the full relevant cost of the JFSC’s new project to significantly enhance its supervision of financial crime would have resulted in an increased of 12.5% rather than the proposed increase of 7%. The respondents requested clarification of the quantum in order that the Consultation was transparent.

2.2.3.1 At 3.2.6 and 3.2.7 in the Consultation, the JFSC explained that it is liaising with Government to explore the possibility of bridging funding towards the cost of meeting the additional regulatory workload. If Government are unable to provide bridging funding, the proposed additional increase over RPI would need to be increased. This would be to the extent that the bridging funding does not meet the expected additional expenditure in respect of the JFSC’s increased AML/CFT activities. This additional increase is the 5.5% difference between the 7% fee rate increase in the Consultation and the 12.5%.

2.2.4 One respondent requested information regarding the status of discussions with Government in respect of the bridging funding.

2.2.4.1 At the date of this feedback paper, discussions are ongoing with respect to bridging funding. It was stated in the Consultation that should the bridging funding not be available, an additional increase to fee rates of 5.5% would be required. As the date on which funds and associated fees will be levied is 1 July, the 5.5% addition to fee rates will not feature on 1 July 2019 irrespective of the outcome of these discussions. The JFSC will be engaging with industry over the 2019-2020 fees period and will provide further information in due course (see also 2.2.7).

2.2.5 One respondent expressed concern that the additional fees in respect of the JFSC’s project to significantly enhance its supervision of financial crime was disproportionately weighted on the funds industry and wished to ensure that there would be an equitable split in funding across industry sectors.

2.2.5.1 The JFSC draws attention to 3.1.10 within the Consultation which states “Similar fee increases will also be proposed to other industry sectors as part of their next fee cycles to ensure the burden of this increased funding requirement is fairly distributed.”
2.2.6 One respondent stated that the JFSC’s “investment in infrastructure and automation [...] does not appear to have delivered the cost savings expected.”

2.2.6.1 The JFSC would highlight that cost savings from the JFSC’s change programme have been reinvested rather than applied to reduce fee rates. Investment in infrastructure, technology and people remains focussed as outlined in Consultation Paper No.2 2016, and the JFSC’s project to significantly enhance its supervision of financial crime will also be focussed: targeted on building efficiencies for business interacting with the JFSC and enabling the JFSC to better demonstrate its effectiveness in international assessments, to facilitate and maintain market access for Jersey businesses.

2.2.7 One respondent expressed concern that the increase in respect of the JFSC’s project to significantly enhance its supervision of financial crime would exceed the “final tranche in the increase of 15% in funding overall, in real terms, by end-2019” which was mentioned at 3.1.1.2 of the Consultation. The respondent was concerned by the prospect of over-inflationary increases in this and future periods.

2.2.7.1 The increase of 15% in funding overall, in real terms is on target to be achieved by the end of 2019. The fee rates consulted on bridge two periods (2019 and 2020) and the focus beyond 2019 has to include proposals for fee rates that are sufficient to ensure that the JFSC is able to deliver across all activities in all sectors, most notably the JFSC’s project to significantly enhance its supervision of financial crime.

2.2.8 One respondent agreed to work with the JFSC in order to assess fee rates and the fees methodology noting their keen interest to understand the potential for a new methodology that ensures the JFSC is able to deliver its regulatory programme while ensuring industry’s views in respect of competitiveness are addressed.

2.2.8.1 As stated at 3.2.9 in the Consultation, to date, no alternative to the current charging methodology has been put to the JFSC, however, the JFSC remains open to discussions on this subject. The JFSC is pleased that the respondent intends to develop this dialogue and will work with the respondent in this regard.

2.2.9 During the consultation period, the JFSC met with representatives of the funds industry to discuss the proposals within the Consultation Paper. The outcome of the discussion was positive in supporting the work of the JFSC, in particular mitigating resource pressures and ensuring strong outcomes from international assessments.

2.2.9.1 The JFSC sees such dialogue as critical to the success of its interaction with industry and achieving the best possible outcomes from international assessments.

2.2.10 No respondents objected to the introduction of fees for COBO amendments for Jersey UTs (non-fund) and NDS’s (non-fund).

2.3 Views on higher increases to JPF fees and additional policy resource

2.3.1 Three respondents considered the increase in JPF fees as an alternative to the 7% fee rate increase not to be an appropriate course of action. The JPF product was considered to be successful and the current arrangement in respect of application and annual fees felt to best preserve this success.

2.3.1.1 The JFSC notes the sentiment of the majority of respondents in this regard and, as outlined at 1.3.1, the JPF fee rates will increase in line with inflation only.

2.3.2 Two respondents indicated that they were amenable to a further increase in respect of a dedicated policy resource for funds policy and product development provided that resource was “ringfenced”. Two respondents expressed reservations considering the additional 1.5% increase to be unwelcome; considering the status quo in respect of current fund products to be acceptable and finding that policy resource should be focussed on consolidation and not product development.

2.3.2.1 In light of the feedback received, the JFSC will not introduce an additional 1.5% to the fee rates in respect of a dedicated policy development resource and notes the views expressed regarding the current products on offer and the status quo.

2.3.3 One respondent offered support should there be an urgent need to deploy resource in the area of funds policy.

2.3.3.1 The JFSC gratefully acknowledges this.

1 Interpretation

1.1 In this notice, unless the context otherwise requires -

- charging period includes both an initial charging period and a subsequent charging period
- initial charging period means the period from (and including) the date on which an operator first placed reliance on Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order to (but excluding) 1 July next following
- JFSC means the Jersey Financial Services Commission
- operator means a person appointed to undertake relevant activity (as defined in the QSMA Order) in connection to a segregated managed account
- QSMA Order means the Financial Services (Investment Business (Qualifying Segregated Managed Accounts – Exemption)) (Jersey) Order 2014
- relevant QSMA means a QSMA in respect of which an operator is placing reliance upon the exemption conferred by Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order
- subsequent charging period means a charging period (other than an initial charging period) commencing on 1 July and lasting for a period of 12 months

2 Reliance on the QSMA Order in the initial charging period

2.1 When an operator first places reliance upon the exemption conferred by Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order it shall pay the fee due in respect of the initial charging period specified in paragraph 2.2 or, as the case may be, paragraph 2.3.

2.2 Subject to paragraph 2.3, the fee due from an operator in respect of the initial charging period shall be £4,210.
2.3 If the date on which reliance is first placed by an operator on Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order is other than 1 July, the fee payable by that operator in respect of the initial charging period shall be £350 (being 1/12th of the amount at 2.2) for each complete month between the date of such first reliance and 1 July next following.

2.4 The due date for a fee in respect of the initial charging period due from an operator pursuant to paragraphs 2.2 or 2.3 shall be the date on which reliance was first placed by the operator on Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order.

3 Reliance on the QSMA Order in subsequent charging periods

3.1 An operator who, on:

3.1.1 1 July immediately following the expiration of the initial charging period; or
3.1.2 1 July in any subsequent year;
3.1.3 is placing reliance upon Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order shall pay a fee in respect of the subsequent charging period which commences on that 1 July, determined in accordance with the attached Schedule.

3.2 The due date for a fee in respect of a subsequent charging period due from an operator pursuant to paragraph 3.1 shall be 31 July in that subsequent charging period.

4 Relief from QSMA fees for certain operators

4.1 For each complete month within a charging period that an operator is registered pursuant to the Law to conduct discretionary investment management within the meaning given in Article 2(2)(b) of the Law (and has paid the JFSC the fee or fees due in respect of such registration), the fee due from or paid by the operator pursuant to this Notice in respect of that charging period shall be reduced by:

4.1.1 £350, if the charging period is an initial charging period;
4.1.2 1/12th, if the charging period is a subsequent charging period.

4.2 At the end of the relevant charging period, the JFSC will remit (or, at its discretion, credit) to an operator any sums received from the operator which, as a result of the operation of paragraph 4.1, constituted an overpayment of the fee in fact due pursuant to this Notice. No interest thereon shall accrue in favour of the operator.

5 Clarification where an operator ceases to place reliance on Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order

5.1 For the avoidance of doubt, no fee rebate or refund shall be due to an operator in the event that, having paid a fee in respect of a charging period, the operator subsequently ceases to place reliance on Article 3(1) of the QSMA Order within the charging period.

6 Late Payment of fees

6.1 If any fee due under this notice of fees is not received by the JFSC by applicable due date, an additional late payment fee of 5% of the unpaid principal amount will be applied on the day after the due date, and on the 1st day of each calendar month after that.
